THE MUGWUMP TICKET.

The ticket put up by the Anti-Chinese League has been a surprise to some people. As the APPEAL predicted, the Mugwump politicians captured the Anti-Chinese League, and by these nominations have used it for their own personal advantages. While they held out the idea all the while that the ticket was to be exclusively anti-Chinese, they placed on the ticket men who had never taken any prominent part in the anti-Chinese movement, and repudiated those who had. Dr. Herriek's name may be mentioned as a sample of the names repudiated by the League. He was the President of the organization, and whatever may have been his motives in the matter he held his forces together with unquestioned executive ability for several months, and displayed a tact in his numerous addresses to the League which surprised a good many people.

He expected the nomination to the State Senate, and if the League really meant what it claimed it meant in politics it could not reasonably refuse him the nomination, as he had led the League forces all the while, and by his frequent speeches showed that he possessed ability as a speaker, parliamentarian and debater. Instead of this nomination, which would have been a consistent one for the League to make, James Judge is chosen. Why? In order to further Col. Ellis' interests for the U. S. Senate. Ellis is a candidate for the U. S. Senate. Mr. Judge, (who, by the way, has been beaten twice before in this county), is employed in Col. Ellis' law office. Now, what does the Anti-Chinese League owe to Col. Ellis? Absolutely nothing. When the League was first started, and before it fell into the clutches of politicians, Col. Ellis was invited to address the League. Before the time arrived some one suggested that Ellis had not signed the Anti-Chinese Covenant, and it was carried to him to sign. In the writer's presence he refused to sign the Covenant, although solicited by a Committee from the League, and his name has never been on the list. The anti-Chinese Legislative ticket is for Ellis for the U. S. Senate. Thus the vote for the Legislative ticket will be for a man who refused to sign the Anti-Chinese Covenant.

This is a splendid starter for the head of the so-called anti-Chinese ticket. It is Mugwump all through, and in their little game the political schemers have played both parties with a long string, and today the Democratic Convention will be compelled, as per agreement, to accept and endorse this ticket.

The Democracy of Ormsby county playing second fiddle to that portion of the Republican party which has been long ago kicked out of it as a mass of useless political rubbish, is indeed an amusing spectacle. Yet it has to be done, and will be done today at the Democratic Convention, as the Mugwumps have elected their delegates pledged to carry out the endorsing proposition, and the Democracy are bound hand and foot on the proposition, having assented to the primaries of Saturday, where the Mugwumps got in their smooth work.

Garrard, Corbett and Herriek have been outwitted by Ellis, Chedie and Muller, and they ought to take their medicine without any wry faces.

The item recently published by the Sentinel concerning the importation of Eastern and California school teachers to the neglect of worthy and qualified home girls, appears to have struck a responsive chord, judging from the manner in which it has been copied and commented upon by the press of the State. It has also had the effect of drawing a County School Superintendent or two into newspapers in defense of their past actions in the selections of teachers. Such an excellent sentiment should become strong. In our attempts to foster and build up the mining, agricultural, stock raising and other industries of the State, let not the active young blood that will in a few years handle the destiny of the State, be forgotten:

This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans. Royal Baking Powder Co., 106 Wall St., N. Y.
